

One-to-One Japanese Lessons from a Volunteer Instructor

Yamaguchi International Exchange Association will help you find a volunteer instructor to improve your Japanese language ability.

1. Application

- (1) Who can apply: non-Japanese residents of Yamaguchi Prefecture who wish to improve their Japanese language skills.
- (2) How to apply: Fill in the application form for Japanese Lessons from a Volunteer Instructor and apply.
- (3) Charges: free

2. Instructor

Taking your requests, i.e. requested time and venue, what skills you would like to improve etc. into consideration, we will try to find you a suitable instructor from our list of registered volunteers.

However, it is up to you and the volunteer instructor to decide whether to accept the offer and to make specific arrangements for your study.

3. Tuition Fees

No tuition fees are required. However, you may have to bear charges for textbooks, photocopies, etc. which are necessary for your study and/or your instructor's transportation expenses. Please talk with your instructor to come to a mutual agreement before you start taking lessons from him/her.

4. Other Points to Note

The Yamaguchi International Exchange Association, will assume no responsibility for any troubles or accidents that may occur during the lessons.
